Forecast For Strathclyde
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Thursday 23 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Cloudy start on Friday, brightening up by afternoon.

This Evening and Tonight:
It will become drier with some clear spells through the evening, Argyll perhaps holding on to some cloud later. Fresh winds continuing and further light and patchy rain by dawn. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Friday:
Cloudy start with some patchy rain, this lingering across Argyll and South Ayrshire into the afternoon. Otherwise becoming dry with some sunshine by afternoon. Brisk westerly winds easing down. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Occasional rain and strong winds over the weekend but some dry and brighter interludes too. A wet night on Sunday and into Monday morning but clearing to showers later.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.